@Sin_Salt

This was the most expensive mid-life crisis that anyone has ever seen in human history probably.

Nick Cage comes in second but at least it seems like he's getting back on his feet.

That was his plan from the very beginning though. He will still own the company but he never planned on personally running it long term.

Part of me wants to sue on the basis the Elon has repeatedly suggested we are contracted media/press, hence we are also entitled to such protections. Labor law is fun.

I mean this is what he's done for PayPal, Tesla... lirc he installed a puppet leader into SpaceX but I'm not 100% sure about that one.

This is expected, yes, but not for the reason you think.
