People like this realize the reason they get away from paying "fair share" of taxes is because of legal loop holes these congressmen and women write....right? No republican or democrat will change that either. Because that eats into their donations to maintain power.

Y'all need to calm down.

Holmes and SBF committed widespread fraud and received cover because they paid the right people and said the right things.

Elon purchased a company, reduced staff, and the Twitter experience has not really changed.

They are not remotely similar.

Who is "we"?

...

I didn't "worship" Elizabeth Holmes (although I certainly wouldn't kick her out of bed).

I didn't know who Sam Bankman-Fried was until this scandal broke out 10 minutes ago.

Is there maybe a little projection here?

This! Was thinking this morning that Elon's will break soon. All those who've known but the need to be on his right side because of his assumed "genius" kept stories buried, will start letting them out. Let the dam break!

That "we" generalization is taking it a bit too far.

Plenty of "us" are not cult fetishists.
