I hope the end comes soon.

I am tired of all the hate from the far right everywhere in the world and Twitter not doing anything about it. Also not doing anything against criminal behaviour here.

Musk still tries to tell us Twitter will be wonderful soon, he lies to himself.

Musk (Thiel, Sacks) are destroying Twitter because it is a stronghold of those opposing their kleptofascist attack on democracy. This is not

-3- Mehdi Hasan on Twitter- -Are we seriously just trying to tweet through the end of Twitter-- - Twitter business. It is all out war on democracy. Please contact your politicians. Please Retweet. Here's a book Thiel really likes

"The Sovereign Individual"

- 1) The democratic nation-state basically operates like a criminal cartel, forcing honest citizens to surrender large portions of their wealth to pay for stuff like roads and hospitals and schools.
- 2) The rise of the internet, and the advent of cryptocurrencies, will make it impossible for governments to intervene in private transactions and to tax incomes, thereby liberating individuals from the political protection racket of democracy.
- 3) The state will consequently become obsolete as a political entity.
- 4) Out of this wreckage will emerge a new global dispensation, in which a “cognitive elite” will rise to power and influence, as a class of sovereign individuals “commanding vastly greater resources” who will no longer be subject to the power of nation-states and will redesign governments to suit their ends.
