If Jews controlled Hollywood, there would be Jewish actors playing Jewish roles, and those roles would be badass. None of this non-Jews playing token Jews who are either the greedy villain or the otherwise loser-ish caricature trope.

You may want to read the book "How The Jews Invented Hollywood", 1989. The majority of the original movie moguls were Jewish and screenwriting seemed to be a career that attracted Jewish writers. The industry is much more diversified today but still has a major Jewish presence.

Everyone should know the reason why there are so many Jewish folks in Hollywood is because that was the only jobs they could get. Back in the day Hollywood was thought to be the slums. It wasn't what it is now. The real issue is no Jewish folks can't get a seat at the table.

funny. and so much for "jewish control" when a show created/produced by a jew (on a network created by a jew [owned by a company created by a jew]) is hapless in tempering his guest's antisemitism.
